ROYAL WEDDING.

Grand Duke of Hesse and Princess Victoria of Coburg.

All the Royalty and Crowned Heads of Europe Present to Witness the Ceremony.

COBURG, April 18.—The weather is splendid, the streets are thronged with people in holiday attire and all the accommodations at the hotels, cafes, boarding houses and private houses thrown open for the occasion has been secured by the thousands of visitors anxious to be present at the royal wedding. The royal standard of Great Britain is floating over the ducal palace and on all sides are to be seen flags, flowers, bunting, triumphal arches, Venetian masts and pictures of the bride and bridegroom, the grand duke of Hesse and the Princess Victoria, of Coburg.

During the morning, the band of the First Dragoon regiment played under the windows of the apartment which Queen Victoria occupies in the palace, and many thousands of people gathered upon the square in front of the palace in order to hear the music and obcer the distinguished personages who were recognized going and coming from the Ducal Schloss. The morning was mainly devoted to a continuous exchange of visits between the many royal personages assembled in this city.

Queen Victoria, during the afternoon, accompanied by the Princesses Alexandria and Beatrice, of Coburg, drove through the town and viewed the decorations. In view of the great number of people who are flocking into Coburg, the greatest precautions have been taken in order to prevent a possible attempt upon the life of some members of the royal families. Consequently the town is full of detectives of all nations, and every person falling in any degree under suspicion is carefully watched and will be under surveillance until all danger of an attempt at assassination is past. All hotel keepers and others furnishing board and lodgings to visitors are required to furnish the names and descriptions of their guests to the local authorities and, in addition, the police are making regular rounds of all such places in order to satisfy themselves that the town is free from anarchists. Especial attention is being paid to the safety of the czarwitch who is considered to be in more danger than any other important personage now present at Coburg. In addition to his body guard of Russian police, the czarwitch has attached to his person some of the most experienced police agents in Germany.

The queen of England, in addition to the special English policemen who have been guarding her during her sojourn at Florence, Italy, has also been given a guard of German detectives, although her majesty expressed herself as being perfectly satisfied with the police escort which she has been accustomed to. The Ducal Schloss and all the other buildings where members of royal or imperial families are quartered, are guarded night and day by uniformed police, troops and detectives, making it almost impossible for an anarchist to approach dangerously near the temporary habitations of the distinguished visitors. Particular attention is also being paid to the safety of Emperor William of Germany. The bodyguard of detectives who accompanied him to Abbazia, Venice, etc., will follow him to this city and keep constant guard over his imperial majesty. The Prince of Wales has two British detectives attached to his person, and he claims that even this protection is unnecessary. But in spite of the Prince's unconcern, a detail of German police will watch over his safety while the heir apparent of the throne of Great Britain is in this city.

Inquiries made in police circles by the Associated Press representative show that there is, apparently, some ground to believe that these elaborate police precautions are necessary, for it is stated upon high authority that the police of Coburg and Berlin were warned some time ago that an anarchist plot was in existence and that an attempt would probably be made upon the life of Emperor William of Germany. The Allgemeine Zeitung seems to confirm the statement made by the police officials, as it states upon the authority of a prominent diplomat, that an attempt was to have been made to kill Emperor William during the latter's stay at Venice. It is presumed that this refers to the incident at Venice when the emperor declined an invitation to go to the theater on Sunday, claiming that he never visited such places of entertainment on the Sabbath. But the real reason of the emperor's refusal to go to the theater was said to have been the discovery of an anarchist plot to kill him, and it is feared that the attempt might be renewed in this city.

At 1:10 p. m. ex-Empress Frederick, Germany, accompanied by Prince and Princess Henry, of Prussia, and the Princess of Saxe-Meiningen, arrived from Meiningen and were welcomed at the railroad station by the Duke and Duchess of Coburg. Immense crowds of people surrounded the depot and cheered the imperial visitors, who were also heartily greeted as they drove to the palace.

MASKED ROBBERS

Enter a Bank and Murder the Manager.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., April 18.—Two masked robbers entered the Commercial bank, of Barraba, in the Darling district, and summoned the manager, Mr. Mackay, to deliver up the money contained in the safe. Mr. Mackay refused and was shot dead. The murderers escaped.

THE GREAT NORTHERN.

Director Hogan is Conducting Affairs for the Strikers.

He Declares Matters Will be Adjusted to Suit the American Railway Union, Ignoring the Brotherhoods.

BUTTE, Mont., April 18.—Director James Hogan is continuing the Great Northern strike at this point and is in receipt of many telegrams from various towns on the Northern Pacific endorsing the American Railway Union and confirming the action of Chiefs Brainard and Clark, of the old department organizations. The company's local agent met Hogan and produced a telegram signed by Clark, of the Order of Railway Trainmen, and Brainard, chief of the Order of Railway Conductors, asking the strikers to allow the difficulty to be settled through the old organizations. Hogan replied that the matter would be adjusted by the Railway union only and all other railroad organizations would be ignored. Hogan is very indignant at the action of Chiefs Brainard and Clark, whose only motive, he says, is keeping up the organizations in order to retain their official positions and salaries. Superintendent W. W. Currier, of the Great Northern, was arrested at Great Falls by the United States marshal for refusing to carry the mail.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 18.—The Great Northern is showing its fighting methods to the men as in the cases of such roads as are in the hands of receivers. On Monday informations were sworn out which will be filed in each United States district court in its territory asking for an injunction restraining its striking employes from in any manner damaging its property, breaking up its trains or in any manner interfering with the business of the railroad or interfering with those men who want to continue at work or who may be brought in to take the places of the strikers. This will be taken into court soon, but the exact time cannot yet be learned. The injunction is also asked for on the ground that the strike is an interference with interstate commerce.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 18.—A Fargo, N. D., special to the Journal says a temporary injunction has been issued by Judge Sanborn, in the United States court, returnable April 25, restraining the strikers from interfering with the moving of trains. An attempt will be made to run a train from Fargo to Grand Forks under the protection of a posse of United States marshals.

WE MAKE PIANOS

And Can Save You One-Half, at the Arcade—$10 a Month Takes Choice.

It may be proper to here state for the benefit of my patrons and others who contemplate the purchase of a piano, that we have secured the use of our present location, Nos. 2 and 4 "Arcade," for ten days longer, and that there are many fine instruments yet in stock to be disposed of.

They will be closed out at exactly manufacturer's wholesale cost, thereby insuring the purchaser a saving of at least $150, and in many cases more than $200 lower than the exact same grade of instrument is sold for, or offered for sale, by any one of the combination dealers, who sought to injure the high standing and reputation of the "Kimball" piano, and other instruments sold at this house.

Right here it might be added that this same combination of dealers who had been at swords' points, not even on speaking terms for three years, are now the greatest of friendly sympathizers and co-operators in connection with their "combination friends," working day and night, leaving no scheme or trick unturned to try and discourage or dissatisfy some one of the sixty-five piano customers to whom we have sold instruments here. But what if the whole combined talent, with all their wire-pulling, schemes and tricks, should fail to discourage a single customer, or drive back one sale out of the whole sixty-five, wouldn't it be awful? What a spectacle to contemplate. Wouldn't it be more gentlemanly, and in the end more profitable, both to the dealer and the few little "commission fiend" teachers who are so eagerly at their service to "down Fisher" (the man who refuses to be either bled by them or bleed a customer for them), if they would get to work and try to make an honest sale of their own occasionally? We think so; and that time—a very short time at that—will convince them that there would have been more money in attending to their own business than there is in attending to mine. I'll give them something else to do. "Just watch me!" A. A. FISHER.

Was a Spy.

MONACO, April 18.—General Goggio, of the Italian army, has been arrested at Laturbie, near this city, charged with being a spy. General Goggio is said to have been watching the manœuvers of the French Alpine troops. Damaging documents, according to reports, were found in the General's possession.

HENRY S. IVES DEAD.

The "Napoleon of Finance" Passes Away.

He Began Business as a Cleaner of Spittoons, Had a Phenomenal Career and Amassed a Fortune.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., April 18.—Henry S. Ives, the railroad wrecker, died near this place at 7:30 o'clock last night. Ives had been in ill health for months. Last winter he spent some time at Tampa, Florida. He was then a physical wreck.

Ives came here about two months ago in the tertiary stage of consumption, and immediately leased a handsome house, known as the Beatty bungalow. It is situated on one of the foothills of the Blue Ridge, five miles from Asheville, overlooking French Broad valley and within view of George W. Vanderbilt's estate. Mr. Ives brought his family with him and they have remained awaiting recovery or its opposite. In spite of excellent physicians and invigorating climate he passed away last evening. He was conscious of his approaching end, but received his intimate friends who happened to be in Asheville until a few days ago.

Henry S. Ives was born in Litchfield, Conn., in 1864, and spent the early days of his life on a farm. When eighteen years old he went to New York city. As he had no friends and little education he was only able to get a place as spittoon cleaner and sweeper in the business office of Harper & Brothers. After he had been with Harpers a year and a half he had changed much for the better in appearance. He dressed better and his face had grown handsomer. He boasted that he understood the publishing business from top to bottom and could run any part of the establishment. This boast was laughed at and the spittoon cleaner remained a spittoon cleaner.

He began to look about for a better job than this, which paid only $3 a week. Somehow or other he managed to get a place as clerk at $10 a week in the office of Charles T. Wing, a broker.

In a short time he was familiar with the railroad business in all its details. He lived with the utmost frugality, and speculated with a judgment that brought success. Ives made a fortune in the scheme to parallel the mineral range, and it was estimated that in December, 1886, his fortune amounted to about $1,000,000. Then followed the famous Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton deal, and subsequently Ives negotiated for the purchase of the Baltimore and Ohio road, including its telegraph system, but his affairs were rapidly becoming involved and in 1887 he was arrested and confined in Ludlow street jail pending the settlement of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton case. In March, 1890, Ives was given his freedom, the trial for the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton deal having resulted in a disagreement. Within two years he retrieved his lost fortunes and at the time of his death was considered a wealthy man.

FIGHTING AGAINST SALOONS.

Fraudulent Names Found in the License Petition at Waterloo.

WATERLOO, Iowa, April 18.—This city is just now in the midst of a temperance agitation, the result of the circulation of a petition for the establishment of saloons under the provisions of the mulct law. Several parties who desire to open saloons went quickly to work and, almost before the prohibition element was aware of the fact that petitions were in circulation, the anti-saloon people were startled by the announcement that sufficient signatures had been secured to authorize the council to grant permits. A comparison of the petitions with the poll lists developed the fact that a hundred or more fraudulent names were upon the petition, and that several had signed two or more times. The matter of signatures upon the original petitions was settled yesterday by the county auditor, who determined that forty-two names were lacking to meet the 50 per cent. requirement.

TOLLESTON CASE APPEALED.

Five Thousand Acres of Swamp Lands Involved in the Decision.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 18.—The case of the state against the Tolleston Gun club, of Chicago, has been appealed to the supreme court from Lake county. The appeal is based on alleged errors of the lower court in its finding and in refusing a new trial. The Tolleston club claims the ownership of 5,000 acres of swamp land along the Little Calumet river in Lake county, which it has for years used as a hunting ground. The state claims the territory under the swamp land act of 1850, and through a patent of 1853, when the property was conveyed to the state by the United States. The controversy for the possession of the land began in 1890. In this portion of the state a number of Chicago clubs have their shooting grounds.

TWO CHICAGO WOMEN JILTED.

Andrew Gustafson Marries His Third Sweetheart, a Nebraska Girl.

VALPARAISO, Ind., April 18.—Andrew Gustafson, the farmer who recently advertised for a wife, became engaged to a Chicago widow and then jilted her for a younger Chicago girl, has given both the slip by marrying Miss Olive Carlson, of Lincoln, Neb.

EATEN BY BEARS.

But He Killed Four of Them Before He Was Conquered.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April.—The Tribune has received a letter from Wyoming saying that four dead bears have been found in Blown's Valley, near Green River. Nearby was found papers and parts of clothing of a man, but no body. From papers found the name of the man is supposed to be Farquherson. He is supposed to have encountered a den of bears and was devoured after a desperate struggle.

AN ERA OF BUSINESS

Inaugurated in the Lower House of Congress.

Absenteeism Will Be Brought to an End by Withholding the Pay of Absent Members.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—An era of business is rapidly being inaugurated in the house of representatives. The quorum-counting rule has been the first step in that direction. Further steps are now contemplated by which absenteeism will be brought to an end. The house will then have a system by which members can be compelled to attend, and when in attendance can be counted to make a quorum. It will be the most stringent system for enforced attendance and enforced voting that congress has ever had, the system under Mr. Reed having lacked the plan of withholding the pay of absent members. It is believed by parliamentary authorities that the new system will make it almost out of the question to break a quorum, and that the house from this time forward will always be ready to do business.

The judiciary committee, made up of the leading lawyers of the house, has presented a report to the effect that it is the imperative duty of the sergeant-at-arms to execute the old law for the deduction of pay of absent members. This report supplements the recent action of the democratic caucus, instructing the sergeant-at-arms to execute the law. It is in line with the general movement to enforce attendance with every law and rule which will aid in the transaction of business. The report of the judiciary committee, after reciting the old law, says:

"Under the provisions of this law there can be no question but that a member of congress is not entitled to receive pay for any day when he is absent from the house unless he can assign as the reason for his absence his own sickness or the sickness of some member of his family, and it is purely a question for him to consider whether, if he desires to attend to his personal business, it will be worth more to him than the daily pay as a member of congress, or if he chooses to absent himself on a trip for pleasure, whether he prefers that or to draw his per diem salary, or the amount of salary he would have been entitled to receive if he had been in attendance at the house."

The report shows how the failure to "dock" salaries grew up during the war, when many members were officers in the army and were necessarily absent. It proceeds: "This law has never been repealed, either directly or by implication and is in force today and in the opinion of your committee it is the duty of the sergeant-at-arms to make the deduction required by this act from the salary of each member at the time he draws his pay. It may in many cases work hardship but it is the law, and so long as it remains on the statute books should be enforced."

The substitute resolution reported by the committee recites the law for withholding the pay of absent members and adds:

"Therefore be it resolved, That the sergeant-at-arms strictly observe and enforce the provisions of said law and report to the house monthly his proceedings thereunder and each month pay into the treasury of the United States the sums deducted in the due observance and enforcement of the law as declared in said section."

Sergeant-at-Arms Snow is back after an absence of some time and is in consultation with members of the judiciary committee as to the method in which the law will be executed and the "docking" system re-inaugurated.

BIG FIRE.

Sacramento's Electric Plant Entirely Consumed.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 18.—The entire electric plant of the Capital Gas company, which holds contracts for the lighting of the city and the running of street cars, burned today.

Twenty-four dynamos were burned and half a dozen of the most powerful engines on the coast were practically destroyed.

The plant was one of the largest on the coast and contained the finest machinery. The origin of the fire, it is thought, was the contact of electric wires at the switch board. The total loss amounts to $300,000.

FATAL EXPLOSION.

Three Men Killed and One Seriously Injured.

KEOKUK, Iowa, April 18.—By the explosion of a boiler today at the Hutchinson electric light plant three men were instantly killed and one fatally injured. The dead are:

James Storritt.
Patrick Keef.
John Rowan.

Charles Jones was badly injured.

The boiler was an old one and had been giving trouble prior to the explosion.

Willis Souder, the deputy in the county clerk's office, was out in the country last evening on his bicycle and, running into an obstruction, was thrown off into a culvert. His wheel was considerably damaged and he has sent it to the factory for repairs.

George Clateshock, a graduate of Purdue university, has taken a position as pharmacist with A. J. Keller, the Broadway druggist.

THE SECOND REGIMENT.

Los Angeles Sends Recruits to the Commonweal Army.

The Soldiers Meet the Enemy at San Bernardino—Eight Leaders Arrested—The Situation Elsewhere.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cala., April 18.—The second Los Angeles regiment of the commonweal army, eight of whose leaders are under arrest here, is proving a thorn in the public side. The authorities of San Bernardino today began to break up the army and prevent its moving east from here, but they now find that their hands are more than full. Yesterday the eight leaders under arrest were taken from the county jail to Colton to plead before Justice Bingham to a charge of attempting to defraud the Southern Pacific out of fares. The men, eight in number, pleaded not guilty. They at once made preparations to furnish bail with the intention to deliver inflammatory speeches, but were prevented from doing so by the district attorney, who filed complaints charging them with inciting riot. After pleading not guilty to the charge they demanded a separate jury trial and proceeded to subpœna every member of the army as a witness, thereby hoping to get all of their comrades a job at two dollars a day during the trial of the eight different cases.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 18.—The workingmen held a meeting here last night and decided to raise an industrial army to go to Washington. About 200 enlistments were made. A labor meeting is to be held Saturday night next, at which they say they will get 1,000 recruits.

DENVER, Colo., April 18.—Coxey's Colorado contingent, 110 strong, intended to seize a B. & M. freight eastbound last night, but the officials were too quick, and the train pulled out without the army. The men finally marched two miles in the slush to the Union Pacific round-house at Fortieth and Laramie streets to wait for a freight on the Union Pacific or the Rock Island roads. They are a wet and suffering lot of men.

OMAHA, Neb., April 18.—Kelly's army is still at the old Chautauqua grounds, east of Council Bluffs, and the situation is a dangerous one. The men are weather stained and chilled to the bone and the Iowa militiamen still surround them, with fixed bayonets, and keep them from the shelter of the buildings. There are rumblings in the ranks of the commonwealers, but discipline has been thoroughly maintained thus far by the officers. There was enough food on hand to last today and that was what, perhaps, prevented an open outbreak. But something must happen soon to relieve the tension or violence will be sure to follow.

Laboring men of Omaha and Council Bluffs are greatly in sympathy with the army of the industrials, and much indignation has been expressed at the treatment accorded the travelers by Governor Jackson, of Iowa, and the authorities of Council Bluffs. Meetings to express the indignation felt were called for to-day by the Knights of Labor in both Omaha and Council Bluffs. The meeting in this city was held in front of the New York life building, on Farnam street, and a crowd of probably five hundred laboring men were on hand. Many speeches were made denunciatory of the Iowa officials and the railroads and offers of aid were numerous.

One man declared that if something was not done at once to carry the commonwealers east, he favored securing recruits in Omaha, arming them and marching them against the Iowa militia now preventing the army from capturing a train. He offered to purchase 2,000 rounds of ammunition at his own expense to arm those who might enlist. The crowd had by this time become very demonstrative, and the police summarily broke up the gathering. The Knights of Labor have called other meetings for tonight. The Omaha Commercial club today, through its officials, made a threat to boycott the railroads that are refusing to carry the Kellyites eastward.

DENVER, Col., April 18.—One hundred and fifty Colorado commonwealers today made an unsuccessful attempt to leave on a Union Pacific freight train. The cars taken possession of were dropped from the train.

As the result of the indignation meeting at Council Bluffs, Governor Jackson at noon ordered the militia to break camp at the Chautauqua grounds and return to Council Bluffs. This leaves the industrials free to march east on foot or to capture a train if one comes along.

ORLEANS ROAD, Va., April 18.—The commonweal passed its night about between Green Springs and Bill Bell's lock, forty miles east of Cumberland. A meeting was addressed at Green Springs, which was the last stopping place for the night, and then the Coxey boats pushed on, traveling all the remainder of the night, stopping at Bell's lock to cook breakfast on shore.

Browne's twenty-fourth general order was a gem of commonweal literature. The chief marshal said:

"There are events in the lives of men like an oasis in a desert—green spots that can never be effaced from the memory of man so long as reason holds its sway. The past three days of the commonweal of Christ have been such spots, each succeeding day being more pleasant than the past, owing to the wonderful harmony existing among us, owing to your discarding a discordant element. For the first time since leaving Massillon we left camp on time."

The order referred in florid terms to the generosity of the people of Cumberland, and the mayor and sheriff in particular.

The canal voyage, Browne compared to the triumphant passage of Cleopatra down the Nile to meet her Mark Anthony, the only difference being that instead of carrying slaves beneath their gilded dress the passengers were a band of stalwart brothers pressing forward to the ultimate hope of freedom from political and financial tyranny as harsh as that of Egypt's dreaded queen.

Jesse Coxey has been reinstated as chief of staff in command of boat No. 2, and Roy Kirk, Browne's private secretary, has been appointed assistant marshal, vice Smith, deposed. It is expected that Hancock will be made by tonight and Williamsport on Thursday, which is one day ahead of schedule time.

A NEW COINAGE BILL.

It Contemplates the Coinage of the Seigniorage.

And is Framed to Conform With the Views of President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Mr. Bland's coinage committee met today for the first time since the silver seigniorage struggle and were treated to a genuine surprise. Representative Meyer, of Louisiana, was present to urge his bill for coining the seigniorage and for low interest bonds, and in doing so he stated authoritatively that the measure had the approval and was in part suggested by Secretary Carlisle, and in the judgment of the secretary would be signed by the president. To this extent the bill was regarded as an administration one and as satisfactorily overcoming the objections of Mr. Cleveland's veto of the Bland bill. The bill, Mr. Meyer explained, provided for coining the seigniorage and so amend the resumption act that 3 per cent. bonds would in future be issued in lieu of the 4½ and 5 per cent. bonds. After discussing the measure Mr. Harter asked: "Is it to be understood that this bill is satisfactory to the secretary of the treasury, and, in his judgment would be approved by the president?"

Mr. Meyer answered: "Yes; I can say that the bill was submitted to the secretary and it meets his approval, and in his judgment it will fully meet the views of the president and receive his signature."

Mr. Dingley expressed some surprise at this, as he said the objections of the president's veto would not be met by the low rate bonds of the Meyer bill. Mr. Meyer added: "I did not wish to revive the silver question if it was likely to result in a fruitless discussion and another veto. The bill was therefore submitted to Secretary Carlisle with the suggestion that I do not wish to introduce it unless there is some assurance of its approval. Mr. Carlisle considered it several days and suggested several changes. From these the present bill was framed, which, in the opinion of Mr. Carlisle, was broad enough to meet all contingencies. I can therefore state authoritatively that it merits the approval of the secretary of the treasury, and in his judgment will be approved by the president."

The measure was discussed by the committee, but no conclusion was reached upon it.

ENDS IN BLOODSHED.

Polish Laborers Refuse to Work or to Allow Others to Do So.

They Attack a Sheriff's Posse and in the Fight Eight or Ten Men are Wounded.

DETROIT, Mich., April 18.—The trouble between the water board and the Polish laborers who refuse to do piece work or allow any one else to, was renewed this morning. A mob of about 700 assembled just outside the city limits, and when the small gang appeared drove them away with shovels and picks. The police force was insufficient to quell the disturbance, and with the laborers, were driven from the scene. No further attempts will be made to resume operations until a full meeting of the board can be had.

1:30 p. m.—An encounter occurred this noon on the Grosse Point road between the strikers and the officers. Sheriff Collins was hurt and ten men are reported wounded. Every ambulance in the city has gone to the scene.

MANY DISASTERS.

Floods and Snow Falls in Armenia.

Houses and Stores Undermined and Collapse—Many People Killed.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 18.—Despatches from Armenia announce many disasters from the floods and snow fall in districts of Van and Arseroum. Houses and stores which had been undermined by the floods have collapsed and many people have been killed. In addition, large numbers of cattle have been drowned and communication between many of the towns in the flooded districts have been interrupted. The snow fall continues.

David Millar, of Toronto, Canada, who is organizing a court of Foresters in this city, is a great temperance worker, and will probably deliver a lecture for the Good Templars next Monday evening.

Tonight is the last night of the Saengerbund fair.

A NEW FIRM.

Wealthy Toledo Concern to Locate Here.

Fisher Brothers Will Erect a Brick Business Block for Them—The Randall Not Sold.

A wealthy firm of Toledo bakers and cracker manufacturers will soon begin business in this city on quite an extensive scale, and Fisher Bros., the well known paper dealers, will erect a brick building for their occupancy on their lot on Washington street, just back of the Schmitz block.

The name of the Toledo firm which has decided to go into business in this city is that of Bensinger & Whitney. This firm is one of the wealthiest in Toledo and does a very extensive business in that city. The lot upon which Fisher Bros. are to erect the new building is one hundred and twenty feet deep by twenty in width and the work upon it will be commenced at once. The new firm expects to be ready for business by June 1st.

DID NOT SELL.

Yesterday two eastern capitalists arrived in this city and examined the Randall hotel with a view of purchasing it. The gentlemen went to Chicago last night and the story was circulated upon the streets that the hotel had been sold. Dick Townsend said emphatically this morning that no sale had been made and that there were no prospects of any occurring.

BREWERY POOL BROKEN.

Anheuser-Busch and Lemp Withdraw From the Combination.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 18.—The local brewery pool has been broken by the withdrawal of the Anheuser-Busch and Lemp breweries. The National Brewery Workers union was instrumental in bringing about this result. The pool has been the one bar in the fight of the union against the syndicate brewers and ever since the boycott was placed upon all the breweries of the city, except the Anheuser-Busch and Lemp breweries, every effort has been made to induce these breweries to withdraw from the pool and furnish beer to all the saloon keepers who desire it.

MARJORIE STAPLEFORD

Dies This Morning of That Dread Disease, Diphtheria.

This morning, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Stapleford, 225 West Creighton avenue, occurred the death of Marjorie Clementine Stapleford, aged eight years, of diphtheria, after an illness of only a short time. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 and will be private. Several times during her sickness the little girl said that she felt she was going to die and would be satisfied if her mother could only go with her. She was a very sweet child and the loss falls heavily upon the grieved parents, who have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sad bereavement. Mr. and Mrs. Stapleford have one other daughter, Caroline, who, on account of the illness of her sister, was taken a few days ago to the home of her grandmother.

DR. DINNEN REINSTATED.

Interesting Meeting of the Allen County Medical Society.

Last evening at a meeting of the Allen County Medical association, held in Drs. Stemens' office, the following officers were elected:

President, Dr. G. B. Greenawalt.
Secretary, Dr. A. P. Buchman.
Treasurer, Dr. M. F. Porter.
Trustees, Drs. W. P. Wherry, K. K. Wheelock and S. H. Havice.

The case of Dr. Dinnen, recently expelled from the society, was taken up. It will be remembered that Dr. Dinnen was charged with circulating a malicious story about Dr. B. Von Sweringen. Last evening, however, Dr. Dinnen was reinstated as the society, after more leisurely deliberation, decided that the evidence hardly sustained the charges. The physicians refuse to discuss the matter.

OUR $300 PIANOS FOR $137.50.

One $550 Piano for $287.50 and Others Accordingly All Along Between.

You may yet secure one of those beautiful and fine toned Kimball pianos at the Arcade closing out sale, if you will attend to it at once, without having to pay the customary $150 to $200 profit usually wrung from the purchaser by the little combination of dealers "who pay taxes," and who also "pay commissions" to the piano picker for picking your pocket. We have no professional piano pickers connected with this house. What we have to give off the price of the piano goes to the buyer of the instrument, and will be found sufficient to go a long ways toward educating the family in music. Our pianos are as fine as unlimited capital and inventive skill can produce. They are indorsed by all leading living musicians of the present day and backed by the highest award and diploma from the greatest World's fair ever known. What more is needed then, than the written guarantee of W. W. Kimball Co., its manufacturers, who are very proud of their achievements, and the great reputation of the Kimball piano, and who would rather have a poor one in the dead sea than in the house of a living customer. Don't hesitate to buy a Kimball, nor don't delay if you need an instrument.

Our terms will be $10 a month, and no profit to anyone between the buyer and the manufacturer.

A. A. FISHER, Gen'l Agt.

A fine program has been arranged for the concert at the Baptist church Thursday evening, the 19th. Admission 15 cents.

RESIGNED!

The Democratic City Executive Board Steps Down and Out.

They Will Take No Part in the Management of the City Campaign.

The members of the executive committee of the democratic city central committee, who had charge of the primaries held in this city and the count of the votes, at a meeting held yesterday, tendered their resignations to the democratic city central committee, at the request of a number of prominent democrats who were dissatisfied with the way things were conducted at the primaries and also at the canvassing of the votes. Their resignation will not go into effect until after the election, but they will retire at once from the management of the affairs of the party during the present campaign. The resignation is drawn up and signed by each member, and is in the hands of a prominent democrat of this city.

LIVELY BIDDING.

Fancy Horses Bring Some Very Good Prices.

Many Out of Town Horsemen Attend the Auction Sale of Rockhill Brothers & Fleming.

Horsemen from all parts of the country were in the city today for the purpose of attending the auction sale of fine horses by Rockhill Bros. & Fleming. The sale began at 9 o'clock and from the start the bidding was lively and the prices brought were very good.

Strathallen, record, 2:24, sold for $800; Maelstrom, record, 2:29½, sold for $100, and Hurly Burly, a pacer, brought $375. Nine young animals, among the first sold, brought an average of $200.

The sale continues as we go to press and many Fort Wayne horsemen are in attendance.

REV. J. L. LEEPER

Is Chosen Commissioner to Attend the General Assembly.

The session of the Fort Wayne Presbytery closed at Elkhart last evening. Rev. James L. Leeper, of Fort Wayne, and Elder E. S. Moses, of Decatur, were elected commissioners to the general assembly, to be held at Saratoga in May.

Huntington was chosen as the next place of meeting of the Presbytery. A narrative on "The State of Religion" was read by Rev. G. A. Mackintosh last evening and Rev. M. M. Lawson preached a sermon on "The Hidden City." Every pastor in the Presbytery was present, also the largest number of elders ever present at any session of the organization.

THE COURTS.

PRAYER MEETINGS—At Different City Churches.
SAENGERBUND FAIR—Held in Their New Hall.
ANNUAL BALL—Given by the F. F. C. Club
CHRISTIAN CHURCH—Meeting for Men Only.
TRADES UNIONS—Plasterers; Boilermakers.
LODGES—A. O. U. W., No. 50; Red Men, Knights of the Golden Eagle; P. O. S. of A., Concordia Lodge, No. 228, I. O. O. F.

WE HAVE made arrangements to publish in THE SENTINEL, commencing next Friday, the great story, "A Yankee in Gray," by M. Quad. It is one of the most stirring stories ever written by that famous author and every reader of THE SENTINEL should make arrangements to read it.

THIS year will see several new paved streets completed in Fort Wayne.

COUNTY politics are assuming an interesting phase and the candidates are active.

LOVERS of the piscatorial art should be protected by the punishment of those who violate the fish laws of the state.

THE republican state convention will be held one week from today and there will be interesting contests for each office.

THE electric street railroad is giving our city a good service, and increased travel on their different lines is the result.

ABSENTEEISM in congress may be prevented now that congressmen will have their salaries docked when they are not on duty.

THE Indianapolis police are after the dealers in lottery tickets. It would be a good idea for the Fort Wayne police to follow suit.

THE city of Huntington has awarded contracts for street improvements, including sewers, amounting to over $200,000, and more are contemplated.

EVERY passing day sees the building boom grow in Fort Wayne. The carpenter's hammer and the mason's trowel are heard in every part of the city.

GOVERNOR WAITE, of Colorado, has gained a complete victory in his controversy. The supreme court has just granted the writ of ouster in the fire and police board controversy, and ordered the old board to turn over the offices."

THE country is informed by Senator Aldrich that the present talk in the senate is only "preliminary;" that the "genuine debate will occur after the tariff bill is taken up section by section. In other words, we are just having the overture.

NEXT Saturday at noon is the time fixed for the strike of the coal miners, which at the present outlook promises to be the most gigantic labor strike in American history. It strikes us that the present is a very poor time for the inauguration of a strike.

THE next president of the United States will have the distinguished honor of ushering in the twentieth century. He will be inaugurated March 4, 1897 and go out of office March 4, 1901, holding the chief magistracy one year and two months in the next century.

THE coming motor for the propulsion of street cars will be gas, according to the report of United States Consul General Mason, at Frankfort, Germany. He shows that while the Germans have not built nearly as much street railway and cable and trolley roads as we have, they have investigated the subject of an ideal motive power with their usual thoroughness, and as the result of exhaustive experiments have determined that the gas motor is the cheapest and best of all means of power propulsion.

MR. SHAMBAUGH, as the Journal stated the day after the nomination, owes nothing to the liquor interests, for they were actively and energetically engaged with THE SENTINEL in endeavoring to accomplish his defeat.—This Morning's Journal.

The above is such a bold-faced whopper that it requires no answer. Everybody in Fort Wayne who reads knows the true situation. Examine the vote, and it will be found that where the saloons were the most numerous and where the brewery men voted, Mr. Shambaugh's vote was the largest.

REPORTS from the different sections of the state agree that the outlook for the wheat crop is excellent, and that the recent freeze has had no effect upon it. But few sections had any of the stalks jointed, and even in those the damage was not great. Farmers say that the prospect is the best in years, and that with the continuance of favorable conditions the crop will be an exceptionally good one. Work is greatly advanced in all other crops, and the oats which was sown in March has already come up and shows a healthy growth. Ground has been broken for corn in all sections and the crop will be planted two weeks earlier than usual.

THE feeling among leading members of the house of representatives is that no action should be taken concerning the Breckinridge scandal. As yet none of the petitions or resolutions asking for Mr. Breckinridge's expulsion have reached the house. When they come they will take the usual course and are not likely to get further recognition than having the caption read to the house and then going to swell the tons of accumulated petitions. There is some difference of opinion among the veterans of the house as to the right to pass of questions of morality affecting a member. One of the best lawyers in the house said the constitution gave ample authority, but the burden of congressional opinion is against this view. There appears to be a dearth of precedents on offenses committed wholly outside of congress.

The Latest Terror.

If Thomas A. Edison finishes, as he expects to, his latest invention, then life will be less worth living than ever. The device is nothing less than a machine which can take 46 photographs in a second. Forty-six times a second is about as rapidly as any living thing can change its muscular movements, so that the new machine will make a succession of pictures of a man as fast as he can make motions, whether walking or trying to catch a train that just glides off as he comes within 25 feet of it, panting and puffing. What is more, the demoniacal new Edison machine will have a phonograph attachment. This will register the words the man who is left will pour forth in a torrent on the air as he sees the train disappear. It will mercilessly record every wheeze of his scant breath as it gurgles forth from his surcharged breast.

After that the sly dime museum man who has snapped a kodak on him will make a reproduction of the whole humiliating scene, naughty words and all, and put it into a nickel-in-the-slot machine. The rustic visitor in the railway station or ferry house will drop a nickel in the slot, and, behold! there will be Mr. Fatman, in all his humiliation and despair, in the very act of relieving his mind by the worst words he knows.

Nobody will be safe when the new Edison kinetograph, as he calls it, is on the market. The tenderest partings of lovers, the old man's fiendish chuckle when he sets the dog on the unwelcome suitor, the very expression and language of my lady when she narrates the private affairs of her dearest friend to a woman who doesn't like her friend, will be there with pitiless fidelity, as Edison says, "a hundred years after one is dead." We can never know when the kinetograph fiend is on our track.

Forty-six photographs a second will reproduce as many motions as the eye can follow. These photographs, being set in motion one after the other by a well understood mechanical arrangement and focused on exactly the same level, will produce the effect of a continuous panorama. The photograph accompanying the moving scene will enable science to reproduce perfectly and preserve a whole theatrical play, opera or dinner party. That is Edison's idea.

Japan's New Constitution.

In spite of the glowing hopes based on its adoption, all is not lovely by any means under Japan's new constitution. That country is having something like the same kind of trouble as now disturbs England. Already since the adoption of the new constitution the Japanese parliament has been twice dissolved by the emperor. Like the house of commons, the lower house of the Japanese parliament insists that its will is the will of the people. The Japanese commons undertakes to rule the whole empire. The emperor gave the people a constitution voluntarily. It was not forced from him, as most constitutions have been from rulers. In that document the powers of the lower house were distinctly set forth.

During the past winter the lower house found the emperor's cabinet distasteful to it for some reason. It therefore attacked that body and made matters very warm for the members, with the intention of forcing them to resign. The intention was to have them replaced by an imperial advisory council more subservient to the commons.

The emperor, however, frustrated this amiable intention at once by using the powers conferred on him by the new constitution and summarily dissolving parliament. Legislation is stopped until a new parliament can be elected. It would be rather strange if the condition of Japan should turn out to be worse than it was before she had a constitution.

AT Knoxville is an elevated ferry which is probably unique. It is an aerial cable reaching from the heart of Knoxville across the Holston river to the bluffs opposite. These bluffs are 250 feet high. Upon them is a beautiful pleasure resort called Unaka park, and it was to facilitate the journey of visitors to Unaka park that the cable ferry was built. Two wire cables, each having a breaking strain of 60 tons, stretch from the top of the bluffs across to Knoxville. The propelling cable is half an inch in diameter and is wound and unwound upon drumheads in the fashion familiar on cable roads. The distance from the center of the city to the bluffs by this air ferry is a little less than one-quarter of a mile. The car would hold 10 persons properly seated if it were in a European country, but being in America it holds as many as can be crowded into it. In going from Knoxville up to the bluffs the car is wound up by the cable and requires 3½ minutes for the passage. On the return trip it just runs down hill itself and takes half a minute.

The courses of lectures to teachers and pupils given in the public schools are not always so useful and so in touch with practical things as they are in Philadelphia, where a course of laboratory lectures has this winter been given to teachers and school principals. One of the topics recently was on buds and branches. Many specimens of both were laid before the audience and dissected, and their differing parts traced out with a master hand. The teachers probably learned more of botany in an hour than some of them had found out in all the years of their life before. It was a pity that all the school children in the city could not have heard the lecture. Whatever tends to make human beings become interested in nature and to love the country makes them happier and better as well as healthier in their minds.

One of the most notable and picturesque gatherings of the year 1894 will be the reunion of the blue and the gray on the battlefield of Shiloh April 6 and 7. It is 32 years since that great fight occurred. The Shiloh Battlefield association has the best wishes of all Americans in its effort to preserve the memorable spot as a national park. Hundreds of unknown dead, both Union and Confederate, are buried there.

Those ladies who fainted during a panic in a church recently are informed that they are away behind the times. It has gone out of fashion for women to faint. It belongs with the style of huge hoops and horsehair chignons. The woman of style nowadays keeps calm and cool always. Fainting is relegated strictly to the lower classes.

It is a bad time to strike just now.

HE PLAYED THE RACES.

Then He Became a Thief and a Fugitive and Is Now a Prisoner.

William J. Zell, the defaulting treasurer of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal company, who ran away from New York in January, returned to that city the other day and gave himself up after having led the detectives a lively but fruitless chase all over the country. The defaulter said that on the day of his flight he went direct to Montreal. From Montreal he went to Chicago, then to St. Louis, then to New Orleans, then to Denver, then to Omaha and then back to Chicago.

WILLIAM J. ZELL.

"I have been traveling from one place to another ever since I went away," he said.

The police superintendent asked him how much money he had embezzled, and he said he thought the entire amount would be something like $92,000.

"Have you any of it left?" he was asked.

"Not a dollar," he answered. "Not a dollar. It is all gone."

"How long a period did your stealings cover?"

"About 2½ years."

"And what did you do with all the money?"

"Gambled," answered the penitent. "The horse races took most of it."

Zell was treasurer of the New York Athletic club at the time of his flight, but did not take any of the funds of that institution. He had been in the employ of the coal company for 21 years. He enjoyed the implicit confidence of his superiors and handled about $1,000,000 of the company's money every month. He had entered the service as an office boy when 15 years old and had reached the responsible position he occupied at the time of his flight by his capacity and close attention to his duties. He had a salary of $4,000 a year, which was ample for his legitimate wants, but he had squandered the money he had stolen from the company in fast living and gambling on horse races and had lost a good deal of it in Wall street, where he had been unfortunate in speculation.

THE OPIUM HABIT AND ITS CURE.

Some Interesting Observations on the Curse of Chinatown.

It is when the opium habit becomes fixed and the craving intense that the greatest injury occurs to the system. At regular times during the day there come griping pains, which become indescribable agony if the victim is unable to get to his pipe. These pains subside with the first whiff of opium and are followed by the most delightful sensations. When a man reaches this stage, it is almost impossible to cure him. It is exceedingly doubtful whether there is any known remedy to cure an opium eater. The Chinese have medicines in abundance. One cannot walk down a block in Chinatown, says the San Francisco Chronicle, without seeing scores of advertisements of pretended infallible cures. The usual opium cure is a course of pills which contain more or less opium and are taken in gradually decreased doses till, it is claimed, the taste for the drug has gone. In the majority of cases the patient is only changed from an opium smoker to an opium eater, and he has only jumped out of the frying pan into the fire.

Even when a man has professed to be cured of the craving he still retains the memory of opium's elysian joys, and when trouble comes his first thought is to kill his sorrow with the drug. To many the pipe has such a fascination that after they have gone for months without touching it a strange infatuation will suddenly take hold of them, even though they realize that every pipe they take only rivets the chains the tighter. It may be interesting to add that out of 318 opium smokers questioned during the last five years 140 acknowledged that they began to smoke to quiet pain, soothe grief or as an imagined cure for some disease; 178 acknowledged that they sought the pipe for the sake of its pleasures. The average amount smoked by each of these 318 was 120 grains a day.

It is hard to estimate the number of opium smokers in San Francisco. Probably the majority of Chinese are more or less addicted to its use. Some Chinese assert that 30 per cent of confirmed sots have what the Chinese call the yuk, or the craving. When a man gets that, he is considered hopelessly enthralled. Home is deserted, family neglected, business forgotten, and the man is an utter wreck.

Strange Surroundings of a Grave.

On the banks of the Conemaugh river, in Pennsylvania, is a sight which is well worth going to see. A short distance from the river, at the foot of the mountain, six poplars are growing, the place inclosed being in the shape of a coffin. For about six feet from the ground the six trees have a common trunk, or rather root, as it seems as if the six trees in the inclosed space had all united solidly and had grown out of the ground, carrying the earth above them up along to the height named. Climbing on top of this common trunk, it is found that these poplars must have been planted around a child's grave. The inclosed space is about 4 feet long, and the green grass is growing in the earth there. On one end is a gravestone with an inscription on it which, however, is worn by time. It is unknown by whom the grave was made.

Geronimo and His Men.

Geronimo has aged rapidly in the last few years, his hair now being almost as white as snow, though he is still robust and hearty. Nana has also aged until he is decrepit and almost helpless. The desperate and seemingly implacable Black Mangus, who took his 14 followers and left Geronimo because the latter merely suggested a second surrender to General Crook, and who, after his own capture by the troops under General Miles, fought the soldiers in the cars and jumped from a window while the train was under full headway, is now a quiet, obedient soldier—one of our country's defenders. Geronimo would like to return, but is afraid the people of Arizona would kill him if he did.

MILITARY SURGEONS.

They Are Preparing For a National Convention at Washington.

The Association of Military Surgeons of the United States, an organization of rapidly growing influence and importance, is to hold its annual convention in the city of Washington on May 1-3, and its meetings will be attended by a brilliant coterie of men whose studies and researches have been devoted to the relief of human suffering of the most acute kind. Some of the surgeons of the army, the navy and the marine hospital service are members of the association, and it is expected that President Cleveland, as commander in chief of the army and navy, will attend the opening meeting.

DR. NICHOLAS SENN.

It was only three years ago that the association was formed, and its original scope was not so broad as that of today. It was organized in Chicago by about 60 surgeons of the national guard of various states, at the suggestion of Surgeon General Senn of Illinois. Its object was then stated to be "the advancement of military and accidental surgery and all things pertaining to the health and welfare of the citizen soldiers," and the words "national guard" were then part of its name. Surgeons of the regular army, navy and marine service were only admitted as honorary members under the original constitution, but at the annual convention held in Chicago last year the name and constitution were both changed so as to admit them to active membership.

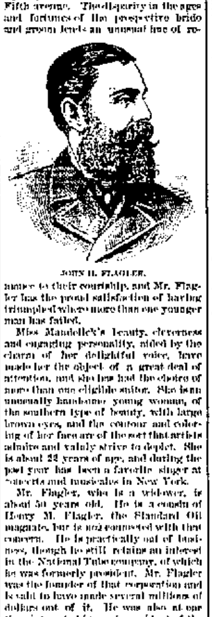
Dr. Senn, the virtual founder of the association, was elected president at its first meeting and has been annually reelected. He is professor of surgery in Rush Medical college in Chicago and the author of surgical literature of great value to the profession. He takes an especial interest in military surgery, and the military school at Washington was founded through his efforts. He discovered a method of ascertaining whether or not the intestines have been penetrated by a gunshot wound in the abdomen, which is a practical contribution to operative surgery of inestimable worth.

Dr. Senn was born in Switzerland in 1844. His parents settled in Wisconsin during his childhood, and his early education was received at Fond du Lac. He graduated at the Chicago Medical college in 1868 and afterward studied in Europe, where he has since become a recognized surgical authority. He was for many years the chief surgeon at the Milwaukee hospital, and Governor Peck appointed him surgeon general of the Wisconsin national guard. After his removal to Chicago about four years ago, Governor Altgeld appointed him surgeon general of the national guard of Illinois, with the rank of colonel.

MONEY AND MUSIC.

Millionaire John H. Flagler to Wed a Beautiful New York Contralto.

It looks as if an epidemic of matrimony had broken out among metropolitan millionaires. The latest case is brought to light by the announcement of the engagement of John H. Flagler, one of New York's multimillionaires, to Miss Alice Mandelick, the charming contralto of the choir of the fashionable Episcopal Church of the Ascension in Fifth avenue. The disparity in the ages and fortunes of the prospective bride and groom lends an unusual hue of romance to their courtship, and Mr. Flagler has the proud satisfaction of having triumphed where more than one younger man has failed.



JOHN H. FLAGLER.

Miss Mandelick's beauty, cleverness and engaging personality, aided by the charm of her delightful voice, have made her the object of a great deal of attention, and she has had the choice of more than one eligible suitor. She is an unusually handsome young woman, of the southern type of beauty, with large brown eyes, and the contour and coloring of her face are of the sort that artists admire and vainly strive to depict. She is about 22 years of age, and during the past year has been a favorite singer at concerts and musicales in New York.

Mr. Flagler, who is a widower, is about 50 years old. He is a cousin of Henry M. Flagler, the Standard Oil magnate, but is not connected with that concern. He is practically out of business, though he still retains an interest in the National Tube company, of which he was formerly president. Mr. Flagler was the founder of that corporation and is said to have made several millions of dollars out of it. He was also at one time interested in and president of the American Cotton Oil company.

Mr. Flagler, who is an enthusiastic yachtsman, is commodore of the American Yacht club and owns the steam yacht Isidora. He is a member of many other swell New York clubs and a director of the Metropolitan Museum of Art. His daughter and only child, the Baroness Harden-Hickey, is the wife of the Frenchman who is trying to establish an independent principality on the island of Trinidad.

A Scenic Route.

"What are the objects of special interest around here?" asked a party of tourists going through Arkansas on horseback.

"Waal, that's var'ous things wuth lookin at. Thar's Bud Jackson's bull pup, only 6 months, an kin lick any year old dog in these parts. And then thar's Si Dobson's twins; both of 'em got 12 toes an 12 fingers. An if ye wanter see a real curiosity ye orter ride over to old Ben Hobbs' an see a calf o' hisn with four horns an no tail—yes, siree! An I kin pilot you to the identical 'spot whar Bob Higgins an Bill Jeffries fit a duel with corncutters."

But the tourists had piloted themselves on their way, and the native said in a tone of disgust:

"Reckon they're lookin fer waterfalls an natchral bridges an mounting lakes an trash o' that sort. Some folks is queer."—Detroit Free Press.

Give Away.

His face was set and firm.

"Woman," he insisted, "your dresses cost too much."

She shuddered.

"And yet"—

She turned a piteous look upon him.

—"if I stop shoplifting our friends will at once suspect that we are poor."

There was the alternative.—Detroit Tribune.

Not Very Wild.

Foddingher in his arms, he rained kisses upon her blushing countenance.

"Darling," he cried, "this exceeds my wildest dreams!"

She smiled.

"I can believe you, dearest," she answered, "when I reflect that you never eat mince pie at night."—Truth.

A Good Reason.

"Sparks, the coal dealer, isn't a very good reader of character, is he?"

Grasper—That is like one of your foolish questions, Mrs. Grasper. Why do you hold such an opinion?

"Well, he has called twice to collect the coal bill."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Sure To.

Head of Firm—I don't believe that buyer will ever come back here again.

Salesman (confidently)—Yes, he will.

Head of Firm—What makes you think so?

Salesman—I borrowed $5 from him.—Cloak Review.

MISS LOTTIE GILSON.

A Popular and Clever Character Singer Famous as a Balladist.

Lottie Gilson, the popular and clever character singer, made her professional debut at the National theater, in New York, in October, 1881, under the management of Michael Heumann. She rendered herself popular by singing the ballads, "The Fisherman and His Child," "The Old Turnkey" and "The Sexton." During that season she appeared at the leading variety theaters in the eastern cities, and she installed herself an immediate favorite. She was engaged by Gus Hill for his World of Novelties, for the season of 1885-86. Irwin Brothers secured her for the following season, 1886-87. In the fall of 1887 she joined Rich & Harris' Howard Athenæum Co., and remained with them throughout the season. Miss Gilson, who is styled "The Little Magnet" on the bills, possesses an attractive presence and a charming personality on the stage. She renders her songs with those telling inflections of voice which never fail to enthuse her listeners, and the vivacity of her acting completes her triumph, says the Clipper.

LOTTIE GILSON.

What the Shark Spares.

It is hard to believe that the greedy and cruel shark spares anything, dead or alive, but sailors declare that "it flies a feather." This fish follows ships from sea to sea, and will swallow all sorts of articles—even knives—that may be thrown overboard.

Seamen say, however, that it will not touch the pilotfish—a small fish with the look of a mackerel, that is (wrongly) supposed to earn the shark's gratitude by guiding it to its prey—or a fowl, living or dead.

In short, the shark avoids seagulls, petrels and every feathered thing. This is what sailors tell us from their own observation.

The Barnstormer's Paradise.

Russia has very few stranded actors. When a manager takes a troupe on the road he must make a deposit with the government to pay the way home for the members in case they become stranded.

It Is Good.

The more Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used the better it is liked. We know of no other remedy that always gives satisfaction. It is good when you first catch cold. It is good when your cough is seated and your lungs are sore It is good in any kind of a Cough. We have sold twenty-five dozen of it and every bottle of it has given satisfaction. Mothers, Watch Your Daughters.

"Nature has provided a time for purification, and if the channels are obstructed, the entire system is poisoned, and misery comes.

"Irregularities from any cause, at any age, are sure indications of organic trouble. With irregularities come disturbances of the stomach and kidneys, violent headaches, shooting pains, extreme lassitude, waxy complexion.

"Remove the trouble at once, or a whole life will be sacrificed.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily.

"It is the most effective remedy for irregular or suspended action known to the world." Mrs. Chas. Hines, Box 212, Duncannon, Pa.

Civil War Again!

The "SENTINEL" has completed arrangements to offer to its readers something really worthy to be called the

CHANCE OF A LIFETIME!

To offer them something of well-known thoroughly established and extraordinary value, at such a ridiculously small sum that it seems almost impossible.

HARPER'S - PICTORIAL - HISTORY
—OF THE—
CIVIL WAR,

Containing Over One Thousand of the Illustrations
That appeared in
Harper's Weekly During the War.

832 immense folio pages 16x11½ inches. Equal to 3000 pages of usual royal octavo size.

The COMPLETE, UNABRIDGED, ORIGINAL, AUTHENTIC WORK, which has always sold from $16.00 to $30.00. Issued in DOUBLE NUMBERS of 32 mammoth pages, at the same price of smaller works of only 16 pages. Thus we offer more illustrations and the unabridged text of the best history extant, the two in one, double value, for only 10 cents each double accompanied by coupons.

The Plan of the Work. The work has been in no respect modified by the fact that this is an illustrated history. They have written exactly as they should have done it the interest of their readers depend upon the unadorned recital of facts. No pains have been spared and no expense to make this the Fullest and Most Complete History of the civil war which is possible. They have not compiled from other histories, but have depended entirely upon the original materials furnished by documents of every description, military and political, no small proportion of which have never been published, but have been obtained from prominent actors on both sides of the contest. In the whole scheme of the work no less prominence has been given to political than to military events.

The Size of the Pages and Illustrations. The pages are same in size as Harper's Weekly and among the illustrations are over 300 Portraits of Distinguished Soldiers and Statesmen, mostly from photographs taken during the war; nearly 100 maps, Plans and Sketches of Battlefields, nearly 600 Authentic Sketches of Places of Note and Events of Interest, such as sieges, Battles, Charges, Hospitals, Military Prisons, Camp Life, Vessels of War, Naval Engagements, Reviews, Receptions, Etc.

The size of the pages give this history great advantage over any other in the power to fully, clearly and satisfactorily illustrate these subjects demanding so much detail and perspective.

There are over 830 immense folio pages 16x11 1-2 inches, equal to 3000 pages of the usual royal octavo size.

RAILWAYS AND SHOPS.

A Wabash Engine Topples Over Into a Turn Table Pit.

Frank Erickson Continues to Improve —Freight Shipments Drop Off— Several Men Injured.

The wreck car is in the Pittsburg shops being repaired.

Fred Hovershire, an employe of Rhinesmith & Simonson, is sick and off duty.

H. C. Luhrman, a helper in the Wabash machine shop, is sick and off duty.

Boilermaker Henry Geerken has returned from Lima, where he repaired an engine.

C. L. Kimball, assistant general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines, is in the city today.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kloeper, a son. The father is a boilermaker employed in the Wabash shops.

Machinist A. C. Penningroth, of the Wabash shops, is rejoicing over the arrival of a girl baby at his home.

Thomas Morris, an employe of the Wabash shop, sustained a severe sprain to one of his ankles yesterday noon while wrestling.

Frank Connors, apprentice in the Wabash machine shop, had the big toe of his right foot mashed this morning by a car wheel falling upon it.

Next month the Missouri, Kansas and Texas will begin the building of the Greenridge extension, which will give it a through line into Kansas City

The Lake Shore will, this year, complete its double track from Buffalo to Chicago. There is but a short distance to improve and that is east of Elkhart, Ind.

A. J. Hilker received the sad intelligence from Indianapolis this morning that Mrs. Hilker's mother had died suddenly. Mr. and Mrs. Hilker left immediately for that city.

John McGowan, boilermaker in the Pittsburg shops, is resting easily today. He slept comfortably last night, and his condition is much more encouraging than it has been for some days.

While handling some boiler steel yesterday J. E. Meyers had his right thumb badly cut and one of his ankles painfully bruised. He will be off duty some time. Meyers works in the Wabash shops.

Mrs. Hiram A. Philley is very ill, and her husband and friends are greatly alarmed over her condition. The doctor has recommended absolute quiet and no visitors will be allowed to see the patient.

Henry Boecker, helper in the Wabash shops, and Anthony Stinekamper, carpenter in the same establishment, have tendered their resignation, to take effect next Friday. They will go to California in a few weeks to reside.

Frank Erickson continues to improve and his friends now entertain hopes of saving both his injured limbs. The right limb is the most seriously injured, the knee being dislocated and the bone broken a few inches above the knee.

The machinists at the Bass works this morning finished turning up one of the largest drive pulleys ever turned out of the works. It has a five foot face and a diameter of twenty feet. The wheel will be shipped to Dallas, Texas, in a few days.

The national convention of freight men will be held at Pittsburg, June 12, 13, 14 and 15. Already the freight men located at Pittsburg are making arrangements to handsomely entertain the freight officials and their wives who attend the meeting. The association now has over 400 members.

Twenty-two years ago today Fred Strope entered the Pittsburg shops as a machinists' apprentice. He was then seventeen years old and had only arrived in the city the preceding day, coming from a little village in Calaraucus county, N. Y. Mr. Strope is still employed in the shops and is considered one of the most expert machinists in the city.

Vice President Harris, of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, refers to the railroad situation in a unique way. He says: "The situation, so far as earnings and prospects are concerned, is improving. Today is better than yesterday, and this week better than last. It used to be that we would slip back four feet and only regain three, now we gain more than we lose all the time, and that covers the situation."

Eastbound shipments out of Chicago for the week ending last Saturday fell short of the shipments for the preceding 8,812 tons. Fort Wayne roads carried freight as follows: Wabash, 14,517 tons; Nickel Plate, 7,789; Pittsburg, 7,079. The small tonnage of the latter road is probably due to the fact that the Pennsylvania company is sending most eastbound freight over the Panhandle, which last week carried 13,806 tons.

As Hostler Dial was turning engine No. 177 in the Wabash round house, at Andrews, a wheel under the turntable broke down and the engine toppled over upon its side into the pit, damaging it so greatly that it will have to be brought to this city for repairs. Engineer Dial was painfully but not dangerously injured. The accident occurred at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon and the engine was not removed from the pit until 3 o'clock this morning. In the meantime all engines had to be run to Peru to turn them. No. 177 is a new class F passenger engine and one of the best in the company's service.

Mr. Hull, auditor of the Lake Shore road, has completed his investigation of the accounts of Local Cashier Frank Hoy and places the shortage at $3,500. The Sentinel was informed of Mr. Hoy's position last week, but remained silent in the hopes that a thorough investigation would prove the young man innocent. It is said that Mr. Hoy lost large sums in wheat speculation during the past three months.

J. M. Egan, who has been so long and actively connected with the Chicago and Great Western railway, has tendered his resignation as president and general manager and it has been accepted. Mr. Egan's place has been filled by the election of A. B. Stickney, who was formerly president, but of late has been chairman of the board of directors. Samuel Stickney, son of President Stickney, succeeds Mr. Egan as general manager.

A petition containing 280 names, praying for a continuation of the street car tracks down Walton avenue to the Pittsburg road, was handed into the officials of the Fort Wayne Electric Street Railway company yesterday. The petitioners are all interested in having the line extended, being either property holders out in the east end or men whose business takes them out that way every day.

The monthly report of R. F. Smith, superintendent of the Pennsylvania Volunteer Relief department, shows that in March there were $4,000 disbursed in benefits on account of death from natural causes, and $756 on deaths from accidents. In disablement benefits on account of accidents $5,311 25 was disbursed, and on account of sickness, $7,441 60, making the total disbursements of the month $17,625 85, the number of members receiving benefits being 760. In the forty-seven months the association has been in operation there has been disbursed in death benefits $414,942 69; in sick benefits, $349,844 80; in accident benefits, $272,535 45, making a total of $1,037,322 94. During the forty-seven months benefits were paid on deaths from accidents for 161 members; on deaths from natural causes, 438; on accident benefits, 17,687; in sickness benefits, 40 424; in other words, 48,423 employes on the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg have received benefits from this voluntary relief association.

THE AMERICAN RAILWAY UNION CRITICISED.

Indianapolis Journal: "The members of the Brotherhoods of Engineers, Firemen, Trainmen and Conductors openly allege that the American Railway union, which has sprung into existence in the last eighteen months, is sailing under false colors. They say its chief organizers have at every meeting denounced strikes and stated that the new organization would settle everything by arbitration, and that is the whole tenor of the association's by-laws and constitution. Yet on the first road on which it gets control it orders a strike, never mentioning arbitration. Members of the old organizations say that George Howard, the prime organizer of the American Railway union, is a dangerous man and express the opinion that it is fortunate for the roads and the conservative employes, and, in fact, the business men of the country, that the American Railway union has so soon shown that it is more ready to order strikes than are the cool-headed men at the head of the brotherhoods. Leading men in the brotherhoods are of the opinion that this action of the American Railway union in ordering a strike on the Great Northern will greatly strengthen the old conservative associations with railway managements and the business men who suffer by strikes."

The Skill and Knowledge

Essential to the production of the most perfect and popular laxative remedy known, have enabled the California Fig Syrup Co. to achieve a great success in the reputation of its remedy, Syrup of Figs, as it is conceded to be the universal laxative. For sale by all druggists.

Who Says Rheumatism Can Not Be Cured.

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regular she was soon able to get up and attend to her housework. E. H. Johnson, of C. J. Knutson & Co., Kensington, Minn. 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.

Tonight is the last night of the great Saengerbund fair. All the principal contests close. Be sure to attend.

Bilious Colic Prevented.

Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell, by their feelings, when to expect an attack. If Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is taken as soon as those symptoms appear, they can ward off the disease. Such persons should always keep the Remedy at hand, ready for immediate use when needed. Two or three doses of it at the right time will save them much suffering. For sale by druggists.

The silver ring contest at the Saengerbund fair, which has created so much excitement, closes tonight. Be sure to attend.

MISSIONARY EXTENSION COURSE

Lecture to Be Delivered by Rev. Coan Tomorrow Evening.

Rev. Coan will lecture in the Plymouth Congregational church tomorrow evening on the subject, "Persia, as Typical of the World's Evangelization." Rev. Coan is a returned missionary from Persia and perfectly familiar with the life, thought and religion of that strange eastern country. This lecture is the second in the missionary extension course that is being given in this city. This missionary movement started in Chicago. It was simply an endeavor to bring before the public some of the great mission problems of the day. To the surprise of the originators the plan was seized upon by the Christian Endeavor societies of America and arrangements were made so that the young people of every section of the land might have the course. Fort Wayne's local union of Christian Endeavor is but one of more than forty unions in Indiana that are now taking this course. The object is to put before the people in a forcible way the needs of the world. To do this the best talent of the churches has been engaged for these lectures, and the speaker tomorrow evening is no exception to the rule. Young, enthusiastic, a forcible speaker, Rev. Coan will do much toward opening the eyes of Christian people as to the importance of mission work in Persia.

The lectures are free. No admission is charged and no collection will be taken. A chorus composed of young people from all the Y. P. S. C.'s of the city will lead the music

STATE NEWS.

Parts of six streets at Muncie will be immediately asphalted at a cost of $80 000.

Frank E. Wyatt, of Cutler, has made an assignment. Assets and liabilities about $1 000.

C. F. Patterson, superintendent of Johnson, has been chosen superintendent of the Franklin schools.

Bert Rogers, the artist, of Lafayette, who underwent a surgical operation at Chicago which imperiled his life, is convalescing.

William E. Hain, alias Robert P. Lord, who escaped from the Prison North early in March, has been recaptured at Mauch Chunk, Pa.

John Breckenridge, colored, of Kokomo, who married Bessie Bowman, a sixteen-year old white girl, has been committed in default of $1,000 bonds for violating the law by such marriage. The bride protested against the arrest and accompanied her husband to jail.

The coroner of Wayne county finds that the death of Mrs. Moses Collier, of Richmond, was caused by brutal treatment on the part of her husband, and he is under arrest for wife-murder. Collier is an ex-convict, having been sentenced for shooting with intent to kill.

Owen Miller, Harry Bishop and Archie Gilbert, three boys of Crawfordsville, are under arrest for conducting a series of daring burglaries, by which considerable loss was sustained by business men. The stolen stuff was found concealed in a cave. The boys are under fourteen years, and were inspired by reading cheap literature.

Charles Dunham, colored, of Bloomington, went home intoxicated and whipped his wife. The indignant neighbors waited until he had retired for the night, after which he was dragged out of bed and severely switched. It is said that the punishment was inflicted by women, and that broomsticks as well as switches were brought into play.

EGGS AS AN AID TO RHETORIC.

Rev. Mr. Rothermel's Elocution Provokes a Riot in His Congregation.

Huntington, Ind., April 18.—Rev. Samuel Rothermel, of Monument City, this county, today swore out warrants for the arrest of nine young men whom he alleges disturb his meetings. His is a country church and some of his parishioners do not like him. Sunday evening he was conducting his usual services when a noisy crowd began a disturbance. Rev. Mr. Rothermel admonished them, and in return received a volley of eggs that broke and splashed all over him and several other persons. The excuse given by the assailants was that Rev. Rothermel is such a poor speaker that they wanted to keep him from holding any more meetings.

TRIED TO BUTT OUT HIS BRAINS.

Deserter From the Army Wearied of His Life of Constant Dread.

Muncie, Ind., April 18—John Higgins tried to butt out his brains against a stone wall in the county jail a few days ago. He recovered sufficiently to be sent home to Philadelphia yesterday. He would not tell of his residence until word was received from the war department saying that he was a deserter from the army but was not wanted. Higgins deserted at Baltimore eight years ago. He says his life of fear was such as to cause his mind to become unbalanced. When informed that he was not wanted he suddenly became sane and was anxious to return home.

Murdered Her Babe.

Louisville, Ky., April 18.—Mrs. Jeff Gullet, the wife of a prominent farmer of Magoffin county, Kentucky, has been arrested and placed in jail at Salyersville, charged with having strangled to death her eleven-year-old stepson.

Cholerine Epidemic.

Lisbon, April 18.—The cholerine epidemic here is increasing and causes much anxiety. The authorities are doing everything possible to stop the spread of the epidemic.

THE RICKETT BOYS

Kill Two Detectives, Who Follow Them.

The Murder is the Sequel to the Hatfield and McCoy Feud of Long Standing.

Inez, Ky., April 18.—A gentleman just arrived here from the upper end of Pike county brings the news that the notorious Frank Phillips, who figured so prominently in the Hatfield and McCoy feud, and Wm. Bevins, a detective, were both killed Monday night near the Kentucky and Virginia state line, at the head of Sandy river, by the Rickett boys, who recently killed old man Farrell in Logan county, West Virginia. Phillips and Bevins were in pursuit of the Rickett boys. It is not known whether the killing took place in Kentucky or Virginia.

RIOTERS ARRESTED,

Charged With Beating Engineer Chas. Semons.

Connellsville, Pa., April 18.—The Wheeler and Morrell rioters were arrested today by a posse under Deputy Sheriff Richards. The deputies arrived at the Wheeler works before daylight in a special car. As soon as the guard lines could be thrown out, a mob of strikers were cornered and the other employes of the company were detailed to identify the rioters who beat Engineer Charles Semons and Joseph Ashton. Several rioters are in hiding, and it will be hours before they are all captured. Warrants have been issued for thirty, and as soon as all have been captured they will be brought here on a special train.

BOTH CONVICTED.

They Shot and Robbed an Old Man Named Sheaffer.

Lancaster, Pa., April 18.—Mart Buzzard and John Brownsweiger were today convicted of robbing and shooting Isaiah Sheaffer, a farmer nearly ninety years old, residing near Groffdale. Sheaffer at first it was thought would die, but he has now fully recovered. The sensational features of the trial were the confession of Mart, in which he said his brother Abe, the notorious ex-outlaw, but now an evangelist, had committed the deed, and the testimony of Abe directly connecting the accused with the crimes.

MR. THOMAS JOHNSTON.

Death of the Father of Mrs. Homer C. Hartman, of This City.

Mr. Thomas Johnston, the father of Mrs. Homer C. Hartman, of this city, died at Deland, Fla., on the 11th of this month, in the ninety first year of his age. Mr. Johnston preserved his faculties in full to the last and three weeks before his death he has engaged in active out-door work.

Mr. Johnston was born in Virginia, but settled on the Grand prairie, about twelve miles west of Lafayette, in 1838 and has resided there or near there continuously ever since. He spent his winters in Florida for the last ten years on account of the climate. He was well-known throughout the western part of the state and also Illinois as a cattle dealer and raiser and as a man of the strictest integrity and of more than usual ability.

The funeral took place at the old homestead, in Warren county, about twelve miles from Lafayette, today, and was attended by a very large concourse of old friends and the children and relatives. Mrs. Hartman and daughter, Josephine, were in attendance.

Probably a Suicide.

Boston, Mass., April 18.—Andrew Scents, aged seventy-three, and wife, Hannah, aged sixty-nine, were found dead in bed at their home, 28 Westville street, today, having been asphyxiated. The gas jet in the room was found open and the gas escaping. The police are inclined to regard it as a case of suicide.

Sheep and lambs receipts, 10,000; unsettled; slow, lower. Top sheep, $4 70 @4.80; top lambs, $5.25@5 50.

The Villain's Trade Mark.

"Here's one more way of telling the villain of a melodrama as soon as he puts in his appearance," said Advance Agent Clark. "Look at his feet. If he wears patent leather shoes he's a villain. No matter where he may be at the time, in Africa, Asia, or anywhere on the habitable globe, the stage villain of to-day must wear patent leather shoes. It's his trade mark, just as the cigarette used to be."

An Enormous Kite.

The largest kite ever made in the United States is that produced in Durham, Greene county, N. Y.

The frame consists of two main sticks, 28 feet long, weighing each 100 pounds, and two cross sticks, 21 feet long, and weighing 75 pounds each. All the sticks were 2x6 inches in dimensions. Over the framework was stretched a great sheet of white duck, 28x18 feet, which weighed 45 pounds. The tail of the kite alone weighed 50 pounds and contained 125 yards of muslin. Twenty-five hundred feet of one-half inch rope served as kite strings.

The plaything cost $100, and when it is mounted into the air it exerts a lifting power of 503 pounds. Six men once permitted it to ascend 1,000 feet.

A High Price.

Every safe manufacturer has attached to his force expert locksmiths, whose duties consist in opening safes which have gotten out of order.

Many of the accidents to safes occur from the gross carelessness of their owners, and at times the honest safe crackers enjoy a quiet laugh at the expense of a group of bank officers or the proprietor of some important establishment.

Not long since a large manufacturer telegraphed to a New York safemaker, requesting that a man be sent at once to his place of business, a town about 50 miles from the city.

Upon reaching his destination the expert, with his kit of tools, repaired to the establishment and was informed that the vault, an old fashioned affair, which locked with a key and which contained the safe and books of the concern, could not be opened.

The man examined the lock and then the key, opened his kit, took out a bit of wire and began to dig a mass of dirt, dust and lint out of the key. Then he inserted it in the lock, and while the proprietor, with a sickly smile, looked on, turned the implement and opened the door.

"What's your charge?" asked the manufacturer.

"Fifty dollars," replied the expert.

"Does any one know you are in town?"

"No."

"Well, then, here's $60," remarked the manufacturer. "I'll give you $10 extra if you'll take the first train back to New York without telling any one the price I've paid to have a man dig dirt out of a key for me."—New York Herald.

IT ANNOYED HER

To Think There Was No One There Who Knew Anything About Books.

"Is this the library?" asked a large and imposing looking woman as she drew majestically up to the desk and surveyed the man behind it critically through a pair of gold mounted lorgnettes.

"Yes, madam."

"Is this where people take out books to read?"

"It is."

"I want to take out a book," she said deliberately and with a strong emphasis on the personal pronoun.

The librarian informed her that the payment of $5 would admit her to that privilege, whereupon she took out a well filled purse and produced from it the money.

"And now what book do you want?" asked the librarian after he had given her a member's ticket.

"Oh, I don't know. I read some books last winter that I liked pretty well—they were by an author," she added as an afterthought.

"Do you remember the name?"

"No, I can't remember the name, except that it wasn't Mrs. Southworth."

The librarian, while admitting that this narrowed the list considerably, could not regard it as closely descriptive.

"Do you remember the titles of any of the books?" he asked.

"What they was called? Oh, dear, no, but they was mostly love stories."

The librarian was still at a loss.

"Oh, well, never mind. Just you pick me out something to read. There must be some books worth reading on them shelves," said the lady as she raised her lorgnettes again and glanced at the backs of the 125,000 volumes stacked up in serried rows in the inner rooms.

"Certainly. What sort of book would you care for?"

"Oh, I don't know!" Then she asked, with the air of having tried to recollect something and at last succeeded, "Has George Eliot written anything new lately?"

"Not for publication," answered the librarian, with a gourmied smile. "She has been dead some years."

"That can't be possible, or I should have heard of it, for we are a very literary family," said the lady patronizingly. "No doubt you are mistaken, but nevertheless, I will call again when there is some one here who knows something about the books."

And she turned and swept complacently out, leaving the librarian in a state of dazed amazement.—Life.

Polite.

Not long ago Edmund Russell dawned upon a certain western city, and the Blanks gave a large reception. Among the plans for the entertainment of the guests was a scene from "Macbeth" rendered by a young woman of local elocutionary fame. The head of the family was not informed of this especial part of the programme. At the proper moment the young woman personating Lady Macbeth appeared at the end of the drawing room dressed in a trailing robe of white and bearing a light. She moved slowly forward, an expectant hush falling upon the assemblage. The host looked up, saw and wholly misunderstood. He hesitated only a moment, then hastened forward with hospitable zeal, saying: "Why, Miss Smith, good evening! I'm very glad to see you. May I relieve you of your candle?"—Argonaut.

This Is How It Must Be.

First Weather Operator (in the weather bureau)—How's everything in northern Illinois?

Second Weather Operator—Lovely. Balmy and springlike.

First Weather Operator—Warm south breeze?

Second Weather Operator—Yes.

First Weather Operator—Men in spring suits and women in thin wraps?

Second Weather Operator—Yes.

First Weather Operator—Well, then, just reach for that snow valve and turn on the blizzard pressure.—Chicago Record.

Evidence.

Somebody complimented Sydney Smith on a charity sermon he had preached, to which the divine replied, "I believe it was effective, for old Lady Cork borrowed a sovereign of a stranger in the pew to put in the plate."—Argonaut.

A Slight Improvement.

Robinson—Does your baby cry as much as it used to?

Parker—No, not quite. The nights are getting a little shorter now, you know.—Truth.

Go With Us Around The World.

We offer to our subscribers the most beautiful art work ever published at a merely nominal cost. This is an entirely new work, every plate being made especially for it. It is called

"FAMOUS PAINTINGS OF THE WORLD."

It is a collection of PHOTOGRAPHIC REPRODUCTIONS OF GREAT MODERN MASTERPIECES. It contains specimens of the great paintings of all art-producing nations and includes ONE HUNDRED OF THE MOST NOTABLE PAINTINGS at the WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION.

It exemplifies the most ATTRACTIVE, INTERESTING, PURE and INSPIRING qualities of contemporaneous art. It contains a superb introduction by the greatest living novelist, GEN. LEW. WALLACE.

GEMS OF MODERN ART,

Reproduced by the perfected half-tone process, having the appearance of the most perfect photographs. So large a collection of photographs of paintings could not be purchased for less than $1,000, and yet these photographic reproductions are offered to the public at the insignificant price of TEN CENTS for each portfolio.

Every picture is described by the brightest and best of America's writers on art subjects. These descriptions are not technical or prolix, but bright and interesting.

The materials for this publication have been gathered out of the most Famous Galleries and finest Private Collections in the Old World and the New.

All eminent artists are represented, but the minor artists and young aspirants for artistic honors—whose names are not yet household words have not been overlooked. The Committee of Selection have often chosen a meritorious and pleasing picture by a comparatively unknown artist in preference to an unattractive subject by a painter of prominence. This magnificent art work is in itself a Home Gallery of Famous Masterpieces.

Do not fail to secure the first portfolio at once. The first Portfolio contains sixteen reproductions of great paintings, and also the magnificent introduction by GENERAL LEW. WALLACE.

All the future portfolios will contain sixteen reproductions of MASTERPIECES OF MODERN ART.

How to Secure This Series: Clip three "Famous Paintings of the World" coupons from the third page of this paper and send them together with ten cents to the Portfolio Department of "The Sentinel" and the part called for will be sent to your address by mail.

The first three portfolios can be had by calling at the office.

The entire series consists of 20 parts, each part contains 16 photographic reproductions of great paintings of the world.

Address all mail to "The Sentinel" Portfolio Department, including no other business in portfolio orders.

The funeral of the late Fred Byerlein will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow from his late residence, corner Fifth and Harrison street.

Rev. E. J. Jones will commence a series of meetings at the hall, No. 254 Calhoun street, this evening, in the interest of the Second Baptist church.

Pastor Rice, of the Christian chapel, returned last night from Decatur, where he assisted Evangelist Scorelle two nights in a meeting at that place.

Ed O. Lathman, representing the New Republic, of Springfield, Ohio, is at the Wayne. He formerly attended Concordia college in this city and is one of its graduates.

convention at Lafayette on May 19 in a body. They will charter a train and take along a brass band. At the last meeting of the T. P. A. fifteen delegates were regularly chosen.

About thirty men are at work today upon the reservoir park, in the southeastern part of the city. The finance committee of the city council will keep a number of men at work steadily.

Nattie, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bendure, of 48 Harmer street, fell down last evening while at play and severely sprained one of his knees. The little fellow cannot walk today.

A large safe belonging to Attorney Will S. O'Rourke was yesterday afternoon lowered to the ground from the fourth story of the Bass block. A new safe was hoisted through the same window this morning.

Justice James Wilkinson is in receipt of a package of gold dust which was taken from the mines discovered at Portland in this state. The yellow stuff was sent to him in a letter by Deputy Attorney General S. A. Whipple.

Seats are now on sale for the forthcoming musical festival, Friday, April 27, when Haydn's "Creation" will be rendered by a chorus of 250 voices and the following eminent soloists: Mrs. Bishop, Whitney Mockbridge and George Holmes.

J. Boylan, who, with his estimable wife, has conducted the Jewel house in this city for some time, has sold out to R. L. Gardner, of Michigan, who will in the future conduct the house. Mr. Boylan will probably go to Chicago to push some of his interests.

The Staats Zeitung of last evening announced that since the executive committee of the democratic city central committee, which had charge of the late democratic primary and the canvassing of the returns, has been removed, they will support Mr. Shambaugh for mayor at the coming city election.

Friday evening Rev. Matthews will lecture at the City Y. M. C. A., on the "Wonders of Congo Land." Our people who have heard Mr. Matthews will want to hear him again, and he will be greeted by a large audience. He will exhibit his curios, of which he has a very large collection, on the evening of his lecture.

Last night, at the Saengerbund fair, there was a large attendance. Gart Stober won the baby buggy. Tonight is the last night and the prospects are good for a very large attendance. The City band and Reineke's orchestra combined will furnish the music. The voting contests will all close and a general good time will be had.

No word has been heard of George Pears, the barber who left this city quite suddenly last Saturday night. It has been learned that when Pears first came here a few months ago he told a wonderful story of having been robbed on the train while en route to Fort Wayne from Ohio. He said he was held up to the tune of $23.

The C. R. L. of St. Julian council, No. 89, held an important meeting last evening to establish a sick benefit for the members of the council. Forty-five names were handed in as charter members. It will be called the Penny Benefit. Phillip H. Werstein was elected president and Thomas Foley vice president of the Penny Benefit.

The Perry, Iowa, Chief, of a recent date, has the following to say of the Rev. S. H. King, who was born and reared in this city, and whose mother, Mrs. George E. King, still resides here, living at 125 Montgomery street: "Yesterday being the eighth anniversary of the marriage of Rev. S. H. King and wife a surprise was prepared by the church. The victims were invited out in the country to take tea at the pleasant home of Tom Scott. At about half past seven they were escorted home by Mr. Scott and family. Upon reaching home they found that a large number of friends had taken possession. Enough refreshments were prepared by the uninvited guests to satisfy the one hundred and six persons who were present. After supper Rev. Kinzer presented a beautiful china tea set to Rev. King and wife, making a few appropriate remarks, to which Mr. King responded briefly. Music by the church choir helped to make the evening an enjoyable one."

The Merry-makers were entertained this afternoon by Mrs. Joe Mills, at her home on Van Buren street.

Mrs. F. C. Gladieux was pleasantly surprised by La Joyense Pedro club, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Smith, of Richmond, are the guests for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stone, of East Wayne street.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Third Presbyterian church was entertained last evening by Miss Rebecca Sinclair, of West DeWald street.

The ladies of the Wayne street Methodist church will have an animated literary entertainment Thursday evening. The public is invited.

Mrs. C. L. Smith will entertain the ladies of the Congregational church with a reception tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock at her home, 130 College street.

Last evening, at the home of Mr. F. B. Homsher, the Christian Endeavor society of the South Congregational church gave a very pleasant entertainment and social.

Miss Etta Martin, of Warsaw, arrived in the city last evening to take a position as stenographer in the offices of General Agent Eversole, of the Mutual Insurance company.

The Young People's Society of the English Lutheran church will give an entertainment tomorrow evening in the church parlors. An interesting program has been arranged.

The marriage of Miss May Perrin, formerly of this city, to Mr. Charles La Doucer, of Chicago, will occur at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. Clarence Cromwell, of Cadillac, Mich., in a few weeks.

News has been received in this city of the death of Miss Victoria Murdock, which occurred at her home in Chicago yesterday. The young lady was a cousin of Miss Maude Hardison and has often been a visitor in the city.

At the home of the bride's parents in Marion township last evening Justice James Wilkinson united in marriage Mr. J. Emerick and Mrs. Alice Dingman. Only a few friends were present to witness the ceremony. Mr. Emerick is a wealthy farmer of Marion township.

Mrs. Sinclair, of 109 West DeWald street, entertained the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Third Presbyterian church. A charming program was rendered. The principal features were the singing of Misses Bessie Cherry and Cary Glenn, and the playing of Miss Brokaw and Miss Bradley.

A new amusement for post-prandial hours is that known as the weighing party. A set of scales is placed in the room and each one present is weighed. Each guest is then provided with a card and pencil and is asked to write the names of the guests and the number of pounds they are supposed to weigh. The one guessing the total number of pounds coming nearest to the combined weights of the company is given a prize.

It is quite as important nowadays to have one's sofa pillows elaborately embroidered with one's crest as the note paper or table linen. Men are as enthusiastic as women, and the popular ones are recipients of many beautiful specimens. One fellow in his rooms has a pillow made from the flag of every nation, our own stars and stripes flung against Ireland's green, and heaped on both are China's dragon and "St. George for Merrie England."

The following pleasing program will be given at the Baptist church tomorrow evening at the entertainment given by the ladies:

Selection	Wayne Mandolin Orchestra
Vocal Solo	Miss Jennie Smith
Recitation	Miss Irma Medsker
Instrumental Duet	Misses Fannie and Grace Conover
Recitation	Frankie Hamilton
Selection	Wayne Mandolin Orchestra
Vocal Duet	Miss Lena McKillrick and Mrs. F. Stone
Recitation	Miss Maude Dickinson
Instrumental Duet	Misses Hill
Recitation	Miss Anna Philley
Vocal Duet	Mrs. Poole and Mr. Barron
Selection	Wayne Mandolin Orchestra

Yesterday was the forty-eighth anniversary of the birth of Mr. Henry Pfeiffer, and last evening the employes of the hardware store planned a very pleasant surprise. Going to his home early in the evening they came upon him unawares, and a very jolly evening was spent in games and music, and at a late hour an elaborate supper was served. Mr. Pfeiffer received many handsome presents. In spite of the sudden visitation Mr. and Mrs. Pfeiffer proved themselves delightful hosts and the party was a very pleasant one.

The reception given last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Perry McKinley on Cass street, in honor of the new minister of the Trinity M. E. church, Rev. H. M. Johnson and the retiring pastor, Rev. J. B. Alleman, was one of the most enjoyable of church affairs. A large number of guests were present to welcome the new pastor and bid farewell to the retiring minister. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening. Mr. Alleman has been very successful in building up the church in this city and leaves for his new post with the best wishes of all the congregation. Rev. Johnson is an earnest worker and good pulpit speaker and his people here will give him an earnest support.

There are five little young ladies of the east side who have lately banded together and formed one of the most interesting literary clubs of the city. They are very bright and very much in earnest and have undertaken the study of American history with a great deal of zest. The members and the offices they hold are as follows: Miss Sinclair Hattersley, president; Miss Elizabeth Evans, vice president; Miss Clara O'Rourke, secretary; Miss Alice Foster, critic, and Miss Ada Higgins, reader. The meetings of the club are held every Friday afternoon at the homes of the different members. At the last meeting Miss Ada Higgins read a very able paper on "General Wayne."

This morning at 9 o'clock, at the Cathedral, occurred the ceremony which united in marriage Mr. James Mason and Miss Rosa Weaver. A large number of friends witnessed the ceremony at the church, after which the bridal party drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkinson, where the wedding breakfast was served. The groom was formerly in the employ of the Fox Baking company, of this city, but is now one of the leading business men of Portia, Arkansas, at which place he has large lumber interests. The bride is one of the most popular young ladies of the city, and her beauty and amiability have won her a large circle of friends, who, although they regret to bid farewell, join in wishing her and the man of her choice a happy life in their western home.

The members of the Young Woman's Christian Temperance union last evening gave a most unique and entertaining social at the home of Miss May Griffith, on West Washington street. Games and music were indulged in, but the chief amusement lay in the "Literary Charades," that is the representing of the titles of books and plays in pantomime. Among those most successfully given were "Westward, Ho!" man hoeing towards the west; "Descent of Man," man sliding down the bannister; "After the Ball," all running after the foot ball, and so on. Each guest was provided with card and pencil and to the one correctly guessing the most titles was given the prize. Miss Fannie Winch was most successful and carried off the reward. Later in the evening dainty refreshments were served. Altogether it was a most enjoyable affair.

At the next meeting of the city council bids will be opened for paving Hanna street from Creighton avenue to Pontiac and Barr from Wayne to Washington, including the market space. The material will be brick.

The New Daily Fish Market have just received a car load of strictly fresh fish. Call and see. No. 17 West Main street.

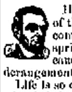
LINCOLN TEA

It is the Best Spring Medicine in the World!



HOW true it is that all of the bad feelings that come over us just as the spring is opening are caused by only a slight derangement of the system.

Life is so different in winter from what it is in summer, that the indoor life that people lead during the winter months produces a derangement of the heart, stomach, liver and kidneys, and the moment that active outdoor life begins you hear the expressions "I don't feel like doing anything! I guess I have the spring fever!" Here is where LINCOLN TEA stands Alone and Unrivaled. It goes, without distressing you, to the root of the trouble and removes the cause, Purifies the Blood, and life is again worth living. For sale by all druggists.

This is the last week in which to get numbers to complete "Sights and Scenes of the World." No orders will be received after the series runs out. Order backnumbers at once.

WHEN ALL OTHERS FAIL CONSULT

MADAME DE BANSHAW.

Why? Because the wonderful cures she is making have created confidence and delight in the hearts of those who have struggled in vain for years against the ravages of disease until this successful woman restored them to health. Madame DeBanshaw deals out no nauseating drugs, but relies solely on her God-given magnetic power, which has proved grandly effective in innumerable cases where able physicians had abandoned the poor victims of diseases who were given up to die. Positive and enduring cures have been made in so many instances that there is no longer room for doubt. Magnetic healing is a reality and is so recognized among the ablest men of the land. The madame treats Tumors, Catarrh, Epileptic Fits, Piles, Thick Neck, Rheumatism, Erysipelas, Cancer, Asthma and all Chronic and Troublesome Diseases. All cures guaranteed permanent. Testimonials on application. Parlors over 108 Calhoun street.

Insanity.

Having for years paid attention to nervous troubles, and especially to insanity, and after treating many cases successfully, seven last year, I feel it to be a duty to say to those who have friends that become insane, that they can generally be restored to perfect sanity, and permanently, in less time at home than if sent to an asylum.
